ALPINA
CLASSIC

CERTIFICATE OF DELIVERY

Dear Sir / Madam,

You can request a Certificate of Delivery for your classic BMW ALPINA automobile in order to document the original specification and equipment of your BMW ALPINA automobile at the time of production. A Certificate of Delivery is available for most vehicles built in 1978 and later.

The Certificate of Delivery only describes the original condition on delivery from the ALPINA manufactory. This Certificate of Delivery neither verifies the originality of the automobile nor the vehicle's current condition or value.

The Certificate of Delivery includes the following information:

ALPINA Model Designation / BMW Series Designation / ALPINA Vehicle Identification Number
ALPINA Production Number / BMW Vehicle Identification Number / Engine Number / Production Month

The following documentation is included in the form of copies of the original vehicle file:
Excerpt of the original vehicle invoice / Technical data sheet

Requesting a Certificate of Delivery

The Certificate of Delivery can only be requested by the legal and current owner of the BMW ALPINA automobile in question. ALPINA CLASSIC charges a processing fee of Euro 117.65 (+ national VAT) for the provision of a Certificate of Delivery. The fee is to be paid in advance.

The following documents must be submitted:
1. A fully completed application form, signed by the owner.
2. Proof of ownership in the form of registration documents (owner must match applicant) or a legally valid sales contract.

Please submit only complete requests with unequivocally legible documents to either of the following addresses:

E-Mail: team@alpina-classic.com
Post: Bovensiepen Automobile GmbH & Co. KG
ALPINA CLASSIC
Alpenstr. 35-37
86807 Buchloe
